Vino e Gusto

A preface

Dear Guests,

I take a lot of time to find special wines for you - wines that you can not enjoy "at every Italian around the corner", but are also in a reasonable price-performance ratio.

Therefore, I would like to introduce you here to three wineries, which have received a special place in the Vino e Gusto for various reasons. Their wines and spumante can be found in this map marked accordingly with I, II or III:

I) Il Borro di Salvatore Ferragamo, Toscana

The name "Il Borro" comes from the location of the medieval fortress of Ferruccio Ferragamo on a rock formation - the Tuscan word "borro" means "ravine formed by a river". In addition to the development of the entire village into a pearl in the heart of the rolling hills of Tuscany, Ferruccio Ferragamo, with the help of his son Salvatore, also restored the first vineyards and the winery in 1993, and has been able to boast of very successful wine vintages ever since.

All the wines of Il Borro - as well as the champagne-like (but prohibited to be called so) Rosé Spumante "Bolle di Borro" are grown exclusively organically, taking advantage of the natural fertility of the soil - the conversion of the vineyards already began in 2012.

A beautiful example of the fact that exclusivity, ecology and economy are not mutually exclusive, but that they support each other sustainably - I believe, after 30 years of activity in sustainability ...

As the owner of the Vino e Gusto I am proud to have celebrated the premiere of these wines from the Il Borro winery by Salvatore Ferragamo during a Wine Tasting on November 23, 2018 as the first restaurant in Munich.

II) Marco Bonfante, Piemomnte

We have been working together for over 10 years with this winery in Nizza Monferrato, Piedmont, which has been growing wine for 8 generations.

The hills on which the family originated have been renamed "Bricco Bonfante" - and this is also the name of their main Cru from Barbera d'Asti, known since 2012 as "Nizza DOCG" ...which you can enjoy with us, of course , even in a single glass ...

Marco only produces wines that reflect his taste, he reduces and selects the production in order to be able to offer an exquisite range of the most important wines from southern Piedmont.

In the glass, the white wines are dry, fruity, mineral but not aged in barrique. The reds are also dry and fruity, but with a large structure, which is enhanced by the wood storage and fermentation. Furthermore, Marco offers fresh, fruity and tingling dessert wines - the white Moscato and red Brachetto - as well as fantastic Grappe.

III) Ômina Romana, Lazio

The grapes for the premium wines of the winery Ômina Romana mature in Lazio, the ancient wine-growing region of the Etruscans and Romans at the gates of the "città eterna Roma".

With a combination of the most modern cultivation methods, a terroir of the mixture of volcanic and tuff rock as well as a great passion, the winemaker family achieves aromatic and harmonious wines of particular depth and power.

Especially I would like to recommend to you the barrique white wines Chardonnay and the limited Chardonnay Ars Magna, as well as the red Cabernet Sauvignon - these wines remind me strongly of my years (and my favorite wines) in South Africa ... so I offer them by glass to you also!

And now enjoy browsing our "wine booklet",

Yours,

Guido Prick

Hermes - Ômina Romana^{III} 2014 ¹² € 42
As a Cuveé of Viognier, Incrocio Manzoni and Bellone it is a flattering companion with floral and spicy aromas and nuances of dried fruit on the finish

Chardonnay - Ômina Romana^{III} 2014 ¹² € 49
Floral aromas, a pleasant spiciness and an elegant structure and after five to six months of aging in the barrique a fruity, gentle bouquet: at first sweet and scenty, then aromas of apple, tropical fruits and a touch of vanilla unfold quickly

Viognier - Ômina Romana^{III} 2014 ¹² € 55
An exquisite grape originally from the northern Rhône Valley, rich in floral aromas such as chamomile and broom, with nuances of dried apricot and a hint of hazelnut and a long finish of spices such as cinnamon and vanilla

Chardonnay Ars Magna - Ômina Romana^{III} 2013 ¹² € 89
Its nose is intense with nuances of ripe peaches, broom and herbs, aged for 12 months in French oak barrels, creamy and melting in the mouth, with a long lasting and harmonious finish. Its special intensity is obtained by 50% reduction of the yield of the vines
